

Oxford Hungarian Society

Hilary Term 2008

All meetings, except that of 22 February, are in the MacGregor Room, Oriel College

Thursday 24 January at 8 p.m.

Dagmar Wernitznig

“No documents, no history”: A Political Biography of Rosika Schwimmer’

Dagmar, an Associate Fellow at the Rothermere American Institute, is writing a D.Phil. on Schwimmer, the pioneering Hungarian pacifist, suffragist, and feminist.

Friday 1 February at 8 p.m.

Peter Zollman

‘Agnes Nemes Nagy, 51 Poems: A Bilingual Edition’

Peter introduces his translations of one of the great Hungarian poets of the 20C., with readings by Ann Zollman. Peter has published translations of most of Hungary’s great poets and is a winner of the 2007 Stephen Spender translation prize.

Friday 15 February at 8 p.m.

George Szirtes

‘The Perception and Presentation of Being Hungarian in the Company of English Poets’

George is a well known poet, and winner of the 2004 T. S. Eliot Prize for his collection Reel. He has translated a range of Hungarian poetry and prose.

Friday 22 February at 8 p.m.

Lecture Theatre, Harris Building, Oriel College

[please note venue: on the ‘Island Site’, through the tunnel under the street]

Filmshow: Fateless (Sorstalanság)

directed by Lajos Koltai, released in 2005. It was based on the semi-autobiographical novel of the same title by the Nobel Prize-winning author Imre Kertész, who also wrote the screenplay.

Friday 29 February at 8 p.m.

Judit Pásztor

An Evening of Lute Music

On the programme: Joan Ambrosio Dalza (born 500 years ago) and contemporaries Bálint Bakfark, Vincenzo Capirola, Simone Molináro, Francesco da Milano.

Judit has been a teacher and as soloist has featured on television and radio. Current projects include a recording of renaissance lute works, and a transcription of Bakfark's lute music, as a special centenary edition for Akkord Publishing.

The OXFORD HUNGARIAN SOCIETY exists for all those interested in matters Hungarian. Please keep this programme and show it to anyone else who might like to attend. We have no membership fee, but ask for contributions to defray our not inconsiderable expenses (minimum £5 per term suggested, students £2). Cheques made out to 'Oxford Hungarian Society' can be sent to Kati Evans, Rowan Cottage, 45 Sunningwell Village, Oxford OX13 6RD (please use form below).
